WHY NOT 9

KCispure. KCishealthful. It really does make lighter, nicer biscuits, cakes and pastry than the old fashioned single acting baking powders.

We make the grocer's prices; both prices, the one he buys-at, the one he sells-at, are fair.

We make his terms in one particular: he returns a dissatisfied customer's money and tells us; we send him the money and 2c more for his postage. This is fair.

Complaints are few; there are some.

- -Dirt Cheap.
- -Yes dirt is cheap.
- -So are some baking powders.
- -But do you want that kind of Baking Powder?
- -Do you want to pay for a lot of inferior ingredients-fillers that simply make bulk but have no leavening properties whatever.
- -Do you want to put into your baking a lot of useless materials that only do harm?
- -Then you should avoid the cheap and big-can baking powders
- -BECAUSE

-they are big in bulk but frequently lack sufficient leavening

-they often require twice as much to produce the desired effect -they will not always produce light, wholesome foods, they leave the baking sometime bleached and acid-yellow and alkaline.

-they are seldom uniform in strength or quanty.

—Such baking powders are merely made to deceive the eye — to look big to attract your attention—to get your money. Next time you buy Baking Powder, comiders

Consider Calumet. It's moderate in cost, but It's all baking powder and it's the best you can buy at any price. We guarantee it in this way: If it does not produce the lighest, tastiest, most wholesome food you ever she take it back to the grocer and get your money.¹⁵
